

MEDI-CAL

Medi-Cal is California's Medicaid program. This is a public health insurance program which provides needed health care services for low-income individuals including families with children, seniors, persons with disabilities, foster care, pregnant women, and low income people with specific diseases such as tuberculosis, breast cancer or HIV/AIDS. Medi-Cal is financed equally by the State and federal government.

Persons who may qualify include:

- Children
- Low-income families
- Childless adults with low incomes
- Seniors over the age of 65

MEDI-CAL

Access to free quality health coverage in San Luis Obispo County

State and county health programs like Medi-Cal are essential for families and individuals who are experiencing hardship. Even if you are working, own a home, or are married, you and your family may qualify for one of these affordable health care alternatives.

Eligibility is based on:

Number of people in your household	Annual Household Income
	Medi-Cal	Covered California Premium Assistance
1	$16,243	$16,244–$47,080
2	$21,984	$21,985–$63,720
3	$27,725	$27,726–$80,360
4	$33,465	$33,466–$97,000

Assistance can also be provided to individuals who receive Renewal of Enrollment (re-enrollment) letters from the Dept. of Social Services that entail income verification and include requests for any changes such as addresses, phone numbers, etc.
